It is understood that a determined effort will be made to elect Mr. McKim from his present position, and to accomplish this object a letter written by the Alexandria postmaster to Mr. Taylor, of Mitchell's station, Calverley avenue, stating that Mr. McKim had been elected and advising the Republicans at that place to vote for Williams, has been secured and will be used against him.

AMUSEMENTS.—The new American comedy, in four acts, will be presented for the first time at the Armory Hall on Monday night, 8th inst., by J. Smith Russell, one of the best character actors on the stage, supported by a company of artists. The New York Mail says that the cast of the play is excellent, and Mr. Russell, as the rollicking Tom Dillaway, holds up the whole play and keeps the audience in a roar of laughter by his ingenious absurdities and dialogues.

The first rehearsal from memory, of "Barry Lyndon," or "The Young Man of the Old Dominion," at the Armory Hall on the 16th inst., by the body of the Old Dominion Dramatic Club, of which place last night, and was presented a success by those who were present spectators. "All is not gold that glitters," to be brought out on the 16th, will be rehearsed tonight.

THE MARKET TO-DAY.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather which prevailed yesterday, the market this morning was well supplied with fresh produce, &c., in season. In the meat market quotations were about the same as last Saturday, and the prices for other things ranged about as follows: Grapes 8 to 10c. per pound; apples 20 to 25c. per bushel; egg plants 5 to 6c. apiece; tomatoes 50 to 60c. per bushel; sweet potatoes 20 to 25c. per bushel; Irish potatoes 20 to 25c. per bushel; cabbage 2 to 3c. per head; lettuce 3c. heads for 5c.; turnips 10 to 15c. per bushel; cranberries 10c. per quart; corn 10c. per bushel; celery 5 to 6c. per bunch; radishes 10 to 20c. apiece; chickens, dressed 50 to 75c. per pair; live 30 to 40c. per pair; eggs 20 to 22c. per dozen; butter, print 30c. per pound; roll 25 to 30c. The fish market was only tolerably well supplied.

A LESSON IN ASTRONOMY.—Young Mr. Mathews was sitting on the porch the other night watching a seventeen year old girl trying to sleep awake long enough to see the morning star rise. They talked astronomy. "I wish I was a star," he asked, smiling at his own poetic fancy. "I would rather you were a comet," she said, dreamily. His heart beat tumultuously. "A comet?" he said to himself, at the same time taking for the first time a little note in his own "and why?" he repeated, impulsively. "Oh," she said, with a brooding earnestness that fell upon his soul like a bare foot on a cold oil cloth, "because then you would only come around once in a hundred years!" He did not say anything until he was half way to the front gate, when he turned around and shook his fist at the house, and muttered between his teeth that "it would be a thundering sight longer than that before he came around again." But by that time the poor girl was in bed and fast asleep.

REVENUE IN THE CANAL.—The manner in which the canal of the tunnel has been repaired is approved by all, especially those whose expectations compel them to traverse that locality. To only a few feet having been opened through to the main street, but an ample entrance was also made, and the opinion that the canal would be made by the canal was expressed by the canal, and the opinion that the canal would be made by the canal was expressed by the canal.

PROWLED IN THE CANAL.—A colored man named Samuel Washington, a driver on a canal boat, fell into the canal below the Great Falls lock, Friday of last week, and drowned before his body was recovered and a coroner's jury after viewing the body rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

CORPORATION COURT.—Hon. A. W. Chilton, Judge, presiding.—Stewart vs. O'Neil, adm'r. et al.; chancery; refunding bond filed by Virginia Stewart.

Julius H. Henderson vs. Jas. T. Henderson et al.; in chancery; leave granted complainant to file amended bill at December rule. In re Henderson et al.; chancery; leave granted defendant to file amended bill at December rule. Court adjourned till court in course.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—Here is a case, a most remarkable one, that will probably call for further investigation by the profession. A Mrs. Gibson, of Fairfax county, residing near the Gibson Camp Meeting Grounds, gave birth last week to her fifteenth child, which, upon examination, was found to be blessed with fourteen well developed upper teeth. Dr. W. B. Day, of Fairfax, who was the attending physician, says it is the first case of the kind that ever came under his observation.

CHURCH REOPENING.—After having been closed for more than two months for repairs, the main auditorium room of the Baptist Church will be reopened to-morrow. All the old pastors of the church now living have been invited to be present, and most of them have accepted the invitation. It will, doubtless, be an exceedingly interesting occasion.

THE MATRONS DANCED.—The steamer Matrons, in making her landing at the wharf foot of King street this morning, backed into one of the ferry boats and was slightly damaged. A portion of her stern railing being knocked off. After a short delay, however, the steamer proceeded on her way down the river.

THE ALEXANDRIA REFORM CLUB.—The Alexandria Reform Club held an interesting meeting last night, with H. M. Poliz, president, in the chair, when a large amount of routine business was transacted. Under the head "for the good of the club," remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Pearce and Mr. James R. Cato.

POLICE REPORT.—There were no cases at police headquarters this morning. Justice Thompson had before him this morning J. J. Smith, colored, charged with an assault on Annie Taylor, a small colored girl. She was released upon the payment of the costs of the case.
